

■ YOUR HOUR OF VISITATION ■

Wednesday Night Preparation Service

Preparing for Revival | Thursday–Saturday

Unleash Your Potential

KEY THEME

NOW Faith prepares us to receive our hour of visitation.

Hebrews 11:1

INTRODUCTION: WEDNESDAY IS PREPARATION

Tonight is not revival — it is preparation for revival. What happens tonight affects what we receive Thursday–Saturday.

God moves in moments. Visitation requires readiness, not familiarity.

God does not empower unprepared hearts.

POINT 1: YOUR HOUR OF VISITATION IS REAL — BUT IT CAN BE MISSED

Luke 19:44

You can be present and still miss the moment.

Key Truth: You don't miss visitation because God didn't come — you miss it because you weren't ready to receive.

POINT 2: THE KILLERS OF YOUR HOUR OF VISITATION

- Familiarity — Mark 6:4–5
- Passivity — James 2:17
- Distraction — Luke 10:41–42
- Delay — Hebrews 3:15
- Unbelief — Matthew 13:58

POINT 3: NOW FAITH IS REQUIRED FOR NOW VISITATION

Hebrews 11:1

God's power is present — but faith must be present NOW.

POINT 4: HOW NOT TO MISS YOUR HOUR OF VISITATION

- Come to receive — John 1:16; Matthew 7:7
- Expect God's power — 1 Corinthians 2:4–5; 1 Corinthians 4:20
- Believe for demonstration — 1 Thessalonians 1:5
- Help create a faith-filled atmosphere — Mark 9:23; Acts 5:15–16
- Refuse conference mode — 2 Corinthians 3:17; Acts 4:31

POINT 5: THIS REVIVAL IS A VISITATION — NOT A COMMON SERVICE

Acts 1:8

Unleash Your Potential is a NOW moment, a power release, and an activation season.

CONGREGATIONAL DECLARATION

I come to receive, not just to listen. I expect power, not just words. I believe for demonstration, not information.

I receive my hour of visitation — NOW!

PERSONAL PRAYER / NOTES

FINAL CHARGE

Wednesday prepares you. Thursday releases you. Friday empowers you. Saturday commissions you.

Don't watch revival — receive it!
